Welcome to Term Four 2022.

Your U3A Beachmere Term Four 2022 program of courses is available on the website, you can also pick up a printed copy at the U3A Beachmere office where the friendly volunteers will assist you with enrolments. Members have the option to enrol online. Limited spaces are available in most Term Four classes. We hope you find something of interest to keep you involved in the coming months. There is a selection of new courses plus popular classes returning. Register as soon as possible for the seminars on Consumer Rights, Dementia Australia, plus the Members Forum. Spaces will be limited.

Term 4
October 4–December 9

Public holiday Monday October 3

U3A Beachmere office hours: Monday to Friday 8.30am to 12.30pm

During the term don't forget to send in your photos and short stories about your classes to communications@u3abeachmere.org.au. Help us to spread the word about your U3A.

New Classes

Music Appreciation.

Relax while listening to a wide variety of musical numbers, including classical, modern and inspirational. Taking time to discuss the music and your preferences. A guest radio announcer has been invited to attend a class during the term.

The Economic Forum.

The economic forum is a discussion group created to keep members updated on economic and financial issues. This is not a trading group and U3A or the tutor will not accept any liability or loss arising from the trading markets.

Music Theory.

Learn chord composition, chord progressions, scales and modes. You only require an inexpensive keyboard to join this class.

Computer Basics.

Join Harry in a four-week course covering computer basics and what you want your computer, iPad, smartphone to do for you.
